

FIELD CAMP 2010
BIODIVERSITY IN THE
BOREAL FOREST
MEASURING IMPACTS
FROM CLIMATE CHANGE

- Learn the Diversity of the Forest in Classroom and Outdoor Setting
- Interpret the Signs of the Forest
- Develop Forest Skills
- Use Instruments to Monitor and Measure the Forest
- Experience " Hands On " Investigative Training
- Choose Research Projects That You Can Pursue
- Learn How to Collect Data

Location: Boreal Woods Nature Center (containing the Model Forest Demonstration Trail) Grand Beach Area

Date: May 20 and May 21, 2010
Second Camp....September 30 and October 1, 2010

Grades: 9-12 (class of students)

Maximum number of student participants: 30 at each camp

Accommodations: Overnight Tenting with kitchen and bathroom facilities (Newly renovated nature center)

Presenters/ Program Leaders: Mike James – Boreal Woods Nature Centre – Biology teacher
Bob Austman – Education Coordinator – Manitoba Model Forest
Dr. Brian Kotak – General Manager – Manitoba Model Forest

Visit Science Council Manitoba @
www.scmb.mb.ca for more information about this sustainable camp and other camps.