

Field Camp: Monitoring Aquatic Systems

Find out more about aquatic ecosystems by exploring a wetland habitat.
Get up close and personal with some intriguing invertebrates and find out the secrets they tell you about the health of their ecosystem.
Learn about wetland soils and their characteristics.
Find out the key role aquatic plants play in a wetland.

Develop skills to make a super Showcase Project about the sustainability of aquatic systems!

Location: Oak Hammock Marsh Interpretive Centre

Date: May 27 & 28

Grades 4-8

Main subjects: Social Studies, Science

Maximum number of participants: 24

Web site: Science Council of Manitoba www.scmb.mb.ca for information about this sustainable development camp and other camps

